BRIEF

Trial in the instant case is set for April 25, 2011 and the deadline for motion submissions is April 4, 2011. Counsel has recently received discovery which may raise a suppression issue and the need to file a motion addressing the same. Counsel has just completed a three week capital murder trial and has a vacation scheduled for March 25, 2011 to April 4, 2011. Due to counsel's trial schedule, vacation and the press of other business, counsel cannot properly prepare and file a suppression brief by April 4, 2011.

A continuance of the motion submission deadline and trial date for a reasonable period would enable the Defendant to raise his suppression issue and provide the Government with a reasonable period for response. This continuance would serve the ends of justice and outweigh the public's and Defendant's interest in a speedy trial. Counsel has spoken with Assistant U.S. Attorney Phillip Tripi and he has no objection to this request.

Respectfully submitted,

s/ David L. Grant
